CONNEFF BAILS FOR ENGLAND. The Great Runner Leaves the Amateur

The front rank of American amateur athletes is one man short this morning, and it may be years before the gap is effectively filled. As binted in THE SUN of July 11, Thomas Patrick Conneff, the greatest " miler" who ever upheld the athletic prestige of America, has definitely seceded from the amateur ranks in order to meet Frederick E. Bacon, the champion one-mile runner of the Old World. Conneff, accompanied by his manager, Richard P. Russell of Boston, left that city yesterday for Liverpool on board the steamship Pavonia, A New Yorker of international experience at the game had almost completed a deal with the same object in view tendays ago, but it fell through and Conneff drifted down East.

The campaign which Conness starts out on is somewhat vague. Bacon challenged him some-time ago to run a series of professional matches, and Conneff's ultimatum is:
"I have made up my mind to turn professional, go to England, and run against Bacon. I can never rest easy until I whip him or he defeats me. I have run the best in the world and conquered them all. Bacon has made repeated cracks at me, and has been so persistent that now I am forced to give them attention. If he wants the race he can have it. I intend to go to Ireland and finish my course in medicine, which I began at Holy Croes College.

"This is my reply to Bacon's challenges to run me three races for $500 a side each race: I will run him for the world's one-mile championship in any part of Great Britain any time after Sept. I, but the stake of $500 a side named in his challenges must be increased to $1,000 a side, to be increased to $5,000 a side if desired. With reference to running other distances, I will positively not make a match to run him ten miles, but will run him shorter distances, which are to be agreed upon after my arrival in England, providing that he accepts this proposition, I mean business, and would like to hear from Bacon at once."

Anything like a detailed review of Conneff's career on the path would read more like a romance than an extract from current athletic annals. He has won races from his early boyhood in the highest-class company, and his co-casional defeats have been invariably due to lack of condition. He has practically every honor to be gleaned in the amateur ranks, and the list of his principal wins is gractically without a parallel. He holds the following world's records:

Three-quarters of a mile, $108 4-5, at Travers leand, and $1.5 at Travers am forced to give them attention. If he wants

5.38 4-5, at Bergen Point, Bopt S, 1895; one and shalf miles, 6:46 2-5, at Bergen Point, Bopt S, 1895.

Conneff's latest achievements have undoubtedly been his best, and his admirers expect that the time when he and Bacon meet at a mile will be well inside the amateur figures held by Conneff. Bacon has done 4:17, without being hard pressed, and he has such an apparent amount up his sleeve at the end of every race in which he figures that the Englishmen think he can break a record whenever he is forced to it.

On figures Conneff holds the Englishman safe at any distance from three-quarters of a mile up to a mile and a half, but it is doubtful whether Conneff can duplicate these figures in a strange climata, while there seems to be little doubt that Hacon can run up to his best trials whenever the occasion demands. It is a clear case of one man running on his nerve against another trained to the hour and prepared to finish out to the lastyard, regardless of the pace set beforehand.

LIVELY ATHLETICS AT STAMFORD New York Candidates Take a Pair Share

Amateur athletes and cyclists turned up in force at Stamford yesterday to take part in the fourteenth annual outing of the emloyees of the Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company. The contests were held at Woodside Park on clay path half a mile in circuit, Several athletes and wheelmen from the metropolitan district were attracted by the substantial prizes offered, and they fared reasonably well, aloffered, and they fared reasonably well, aithough the local men contrived to take a fair slice of the honors. Ripley of Newark had a very successful day in the cycling events, and the wearers of the New York A. C. wluged foot were conspicuous in the running events. Representatives of the St. Francis Navier and New Jersey Athletic clubs were also in evidence, the sprint going to J. P. Connor, while E. J. Hjertberg took the three-mile run in good style. Summary:

edschalk Wins the Whalebrook Handleap. HoLLY wood, July 18 .- E. Godschalk of the Riverton Gun Club won the Whalebrook Handicap to-day from a field of eleven crack shots by grassing fifteen birds straight. The shoot, which began shortly after 11 o'clock, was exciting to the end. The birds were among the best liber-

At the beginning of the twelfth round three of the eleven contestants had not missed a singie bird. They were Godschalk, "Count," and Morris. It looked like anybody's prize. Morris, however, was soon out of the race, as he missed both his tweifth and thirteenth birds, and divided third money, $16.50, with McAlpin and Hooper, with 13 kills out of 15. Sanger of Philadelphia, who shoots under the name of "Count," held on without missing until the fourteenth round, when he missed a right driver. He secured second money, amounting to $49.50.

NIAGARA, Ont., July 18 .- The Canadia pionship lawn tennis tournament ended here this afternoon after one of the biggest day's play on record. Five finals and a challenge match were played in one day, and some of the players were pretty well exhausted before the last set was finished. Ex-Champion Bob Wrenn distinguished himself again by beating Fischer three straight sets and taking the Canadian championship, and then wound up a hard day's play by pulling out an exciting five-set match in the finals of the open handleap. Wrenn owed thirty to Lieut Davis of West Point, and, although this was his first handleap tournsment, he captured first prize after losing the ment, he captured first prize after losing the close five-set match between Miss Moore and Miss Atkinson, the American champion and exchampion. Miss Atkinson finally won after some exciting and clever play, and then easily defeated the former Canadian champion, who was outclassed. The American players took every prize. Summary: every prize. Remsen's Clever Work at the Traps. The Vernon Bod and Gun Club held its regular weekly clay bird shoot yesterday afternoon on the ounds of the organization, Enfield street, Brookiyn. J. renemed Remsen, after an accessed of two weeks, signalized his reappearance at the traps by carrying off the honors of the day. His first large score was twenty nine straight, made in the second, third, and fourth events. In the three match races with Dr. Iditefield Remsen scored twenty-five straight in the first, twenty-four in the second, and twenty two in the third, so it will be seen that out of the last seventy-two targets shot at he missed only one. ulased only one.

GRAVESEND BAY Y. C. BEGATTA, The Lints V. Beats Mary II, in an Ex-One of the best yacht races held by the Gravesend Bay Yacht Club took place yesterday afternoon off Gravesend Bay. It was the third annual regatts of the club, and the occasion will be remembered, as it passed off with-out a flaw or accident. Thirty-seven entries were received, which included boats from the Pavonia, Bayswater, Kill von Kuli, New York Bay, Indian Harbor, Harlem, Excelsior, New York Cance, Brooklyn, and Jersey City yacht lubs. Out of these, eighteen boats started. There were seven classes, but the committee were compelled to cancel class B and class D, owing to lack of entries. The weather was ideal for racing and the wind was all that could be desired. At the start it blew from the southeast, but it gradually shifted to the south'ard. There were three courses: No. 1, for classes A, B, and half-raters, which was off the club house, to and around a stakeboat off the Government dock at Fort Hamilton, thence to and around a stakeboat off Coney Island Point and back to starting point, a distance of eight miles; course No. 2, which was for classes D and E to and around buoy No. 11, thence to and around the red bell buoy off the Swash Channel and return, a distance of eleven miles. The 30 around the red bell buoy off the Swash Channel and return, a distance of eleven miles. The 30 and 35 foot classes took course No. 3, which was from the club house, to and around houry No. 11, thence to and around Southwest Spit and return to starting line, a distance of sixteen miles. The interest of the members was centred in the race between the Acorn and the Louise, both of which are new boats. Opinion was equally divided as to the result, but the chances of the Louise were considered the brightest. There was considerable disappointment when neither boat won the race. However, the chargin was somewhat smothered when the Louise beat the Acorn by 9 minutes and 43 seconds on corrected time.

W. E. Elsworth's cabin cat, the Mary II., of the Indian Harbor Yacht Club, finished second in class E. After this race Commodore Morgan, owner of the Acorn, challenged Vice-Commodore Sherwood, who owns the Louise, to race a special race for a stake, for which arrangements are now being made. The defi was promptly accepted, and the affair is to come off in two weeks. As there is a doubt of the superiority of some of the boats in class A. a race between the Martha M., Ulmer Park, and the Maggie P. was also arranged. The Paul and Stella and the Sea Robin, which is considered a very speedy boat, will also race on that occasion. In the race for half-raters the Terrapin, owned by W. S. Peters of the New York Canoe Club, simply ran away from her nearest and only competitor, Cyrans. The E. J. Hates in the thirty-foot class scared such good boats as the Nomad, Pavonia, and Gracie out and had a walkover. After the races the club held a vaudeville entertainment, which was followed by dancing. Summar; CLASS A. OPEN BOATS, TWENTY-ONE FERT AND UNDERS.

The "20TH CENTURY" Bicycle Headlight and to advertise the selling price much below cost, but their policy is not to really sell as HENCE they tell you that they are "just out," that they "cannot get them fast enough," &c.

We should like the public to understand that as far as being "OUT," this is likely enough, for they never bought but a trifling few dozen from their jouner for the sake of the excuse of advertising; but so far as their being able to keep in supply, there is not the slightest difficulty about that, and at a moment's notice. Such stores even refuse to take your money to send you the Headlight, or in other cases they have taken it and returned the money at a later date.

Their object is, of course, to induce you to visit their piace, where they can suisitize some other Lamp if possible, which they say "is as good or better." breaks it pays them a profit to do so.

All this is manifestly infair, not only to the manufacturers whose goods they slaughter, but it is not to be a feet the same profit or it they advertise below cost have the decency to deliver want to make a making their customers both trouble and expense to reach their stores.

The stores which rouble and expense to reach their stores, are tried to huy a "20TH CENTURY" of them, or you will know them next week, when you undertake to do so.

You will also at easily ascertain what stores are above anch siyle of business when after advertising they have or will fill your order.
